

Wednesday 15 July 2020

Practice Nurse Engagement

What's in your Practice Nurse Engagement Bulletin?

This bulletin provides details of training, guidance, access to past editions and lots more. There's also helpful information on the web pages dedicated to our practice nursing colleagues. Please click here to bookmark these pages.

Opportunity: Lecturer/ Practitioner to help develop program for General Practice Nurses

University of York were successful in a bid to HEE Strategic Support Fund to develop a programme for General Practice Nurses to start in September 2021. The university is planning to offer a programme at both degree and masters level focused on supporting people to develop the skills and competencies as they move into a GPN role. At the moment they are advertising for a secondee/fixed term contract to support the development of the programme.

Further information on the role is available through this link

Dr Sue Faulds, Senior Lecturer is very happy to talk to anyone regarding this post.

She can be contacted through sue.faulds@york.ac.uk or 01904 32 1635

Please note the application deadline is 27 July

Take part in the Primary Care and General Practice Nursing Career and Core Capabilities Framework Consultation Survey

Skills for Health are inviting people to comment and feedback on the consultation draft of their Primary Care and General Practice Nursing Career and Core Capabilities Framework

To view the framework and survey please follow this link

The deadline for completing the survey is 4pm, Friday 7 August, 2020.

This bulletin has been produced by NHS Vale of York Clinical Commissioning Group.

If you would like to unsubscribe from this bulletin email sam.varo@nhs.net