

Good News and Sharing of Learning

May 2021

Handley House Threw A Surprise Superhero Themed Day to Celebrate their Care Teams Dedication to Providing Person- Centred Care to Their Residents

Derwent House Received A Donation of Dementia Assistive Cats and Dogs for Residents

A Service Manager at Avalon York Walked 77,777 steps in 7 Days to Raise Funds for
The National Autistic Society

Chris Buntin from Omega Oak Barn has been Shortlisted in the Category of Care Home Registered Manager at the Yorkshire and Humber Stage of the Great British Care Awards

Meadowbeck Care Home Have Bought a “Magic Table” To Facilitate Interactive Games to Connect Residents with Staff and with Each Other to Research Improves the Wellbeing of People Living with Dementia.

Birchlands Care Home have Created Memory Trees on Each Floor

The Team at Grimston Court Care Home Have Created This Fantastic Scarecrow for the Local Village Trail

A Care Assistant with The Great Care Company York Has Been Using Her Passion For Art By Painting Portraits of Her Clients With Dementia To Improve their Sense of Self and Identity

The Ancient Society of York Florists Held A Display of Daffodils at Amarna House Care Home

Residents at The Chocolate Works Experienced a Virtual Walking Tour of York and Learned of Grizzly Tales of Days Gone By

Home Instead York Have Teamed Up With Teamed up with ORCHA (the Organisation for the Review of Care and Health
Applications) to Review
Apps to Assist Their Clients

The Hall Care Home care home and children at the local primary school have been keeping in touch during lockdown with the help of poetry.

Residents sent a video of poetry to children when they were celebrating poetry week from home recently. The children have now sent a video featuring their poetry back to the care home.

Osborne House in Selby Collected Over 100 Birthday Cards to Celebrate A Resident's Birthday

Stamford Bridge Beaumont
Hosted A Virtual
Presentation Hosted by Sea
Life London Aquarium as Part of Their Enrichment
Programme for Staff and Residents

Blossom Care Tadcaster Have Raised £299 for Special Needs And Parent Support Yorkshire

