

Leadership Programme for Black and Ethnic Minority Nurses in Social Care- Applications Now Open

The Florence Nightingale Foundation in partnership with Deborah Sturdy, Chief Nurse for Social Care in the Department for Health and Social Care, are pleased to offer an exceptional and transformational leadership development opportunity. The six month programme is open to nurses from black and ethnic minority backgrounds working in social care organisations across England who have at least three years post registration experience.

This programme offers a supportive learning space for nurses to develop their leadership identity, capacity, and capability, enabling their influence on organisational and patient health outcomes. It is designed to provide a supportive learning space to develop leadership identity, capacity, and capability to influence organisational and patient outcomes. Application are now open until 15 September. Please follow this link for more information.

From 'Assurance' to 'Improvement'- A Guide to Practical Quality Improvement

When: Monday 05 September 1:00-4:00 via Microsoft Teams

Alongside The Improvement Academy and North Yorkshire County Council, we have arranged a session that is open to any interested members of staff from across the care sector as a guide to practical quality improvement within your service. The session can also be used to count towards CPD and revalidation. For further information and to book your place- please contact sam.varo@nhs.net
